PEW SHEET

Sunday 14th November: Remembrance Sunday

A big WELCOME to each and every one of you here today !

Readings: 14th November

Collect
Heavenly Lord,
you long for the world's salvation:
stir us from apathy restrain us from excess and revive in us new hope that all creation will one day be healed
in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Daniel 12. 1-3
'At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. [2] Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. [3] Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

Hebrews 10. 11-14 (15-18) 19-25
[11] And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. [12] But when Christ[a] had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, 'he sat down at the right hand of God', [13] and since then has been waiting 'until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.' [14] For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

[15] And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,
[16] 'This is the covenant that I will make with them
after those days, says the Lord:
I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds', [17] he also adds,
'I will remember[a] their sins and their lawless deeds no more.'
[18] Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

[19] Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, [20] by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), [21] and since we have a great priest over the house of God, [22] let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. [23] Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. [24] And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, [25] not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Mark 13. 1-8
As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, 'Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!' [2] Then Jesus asked him, 'Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.'

[3] When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, [4] 'Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?' [5] Then Jesus began to say to them, 'Beware that no one leads you astray. [6] Many will come in my name and say, "I am he!"[a] and they will lead many astray. [7] When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. [8] For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Post Communion Prayer
Gracious Lord,
in this holy sacrament
you give substance to our hope:
bring us at the last
to that fullness of life for which we long;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

AUTUMN TIDY UP OF ST GILES' CHURCHYARD

We will be carrying out our annual Autumn tidy-up of the St Giles Churchyard on Saturday November 27th starting at 9.00am. If you can help, please come along and don't forget to bring gloves, rakes etc and a bag or similar receptacle to carry leaves etc to the heap at the rear of the churchyard.

Unfortunately, we will not be providing refreshments this year so do come armed with a warm drink in a flask. Hopefully, the wind will have fetched the majority of leaves off the trees by the 27th and our efforts will be effective but probably there will be more that could be done. If you are unable to come on the 27th, nature will, no doubt, have produced some more leaves so feel free to come along during the following week and carry out some finishing touches.

Ian Lawrence, Church Warden
