Friday 30th September

CRANWELL MILITARY WIVES CHOIR

Join us for a concert at Newark Palace Theatre on Friday 4th November 2022 at 7.30 pm. Tickets are £17.50. Tickets from Linda Lawrence will enable a small donation to go to St Giles.

Cranwell Military Wives Choir was formed in 2012 by Nicola Swann, who is still a member today. Her vision was simple, to create a community of ladies in the Cranwell area who could come together with like-minded people to sing and socialise. Hear these in concert along with performances from the Band of the Royal Airforce college for a double taste of Cranwell this Autumn.

WALK & TALK

The Walk and Talk group are taking a little break but will reconvene on Wednesday 24th August 2022 at 10.00am outside St. Giles' Church. Sincere thanks to all our lovely friends and see you again very soon. Lynn Green 01636 700445

READINGS FOR SUNDAY 7th AUGUST

Collect

Lord God,
your Son left the riches of heaven and became poor for our sake:
when we prosper save us from pride,
when we are needy save us from despair,
that we may trust in you alone;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Isaiah 1. 1, 10-20

1 The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

¹⁰ Hear the word of the Lord, you rulers of Sodom!

Listen to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

¹¹ What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the Lord;

I have had enough of burnt-offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts;

I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats.

¹² When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand?

Trample my courts no more; ¹³ bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me.

New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation—I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity.

¹⁴ Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates;

they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them.

¹⁵ When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you;

even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood.

¹⁶ Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.

¹⁸ Come now, let us argue it out, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. ¹⁹ If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; ²⁰ but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Hebrews 11. 1-3, 8-16

11 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. ² Indeed, by faith ^[a] our ancestors received approval. ³ By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

⁸ By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹ By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹ By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. ¹² Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, ‘as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.’

¹³ All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, ¹⁴ for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵ If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Luke 12. 32-40

³² ‘Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. ³³ Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. ³⁴ For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

³⁵ ‘Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; ³⁶ be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. ³⁷ Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. ³⁸ If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

³⁹ ‘But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he ^[a] would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁰ You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.’

Post Communion Prayer

Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands that have taken holy things; may the ears which have heard your word be deaf to clamour and dispute;
may the tongues which have sung your praise be free from deceit; may the eyes which have seen the tokens of your love shine with the light of hope;
and may the bodies which have been fed with your body be refreshed with the fullness of your life;
glory to you for ever. Amen

RIDE & STRIDE @ ALL SAINTS, CODDINGTON

The annual Nottinghamshire Historic Churches' Trust's Sponsored 'Ride and Stride' event takes place on Saturday 10 September. The event is open to anyone, be they cyclists, walkers, mobility scooters, dog walkers, who would like the opportunity to discover some of Nottinghamshire's hidden gems and raise money for All Saints' Coddington at the same time.

If you have taken part before, you may wish to challenge yourself to see whether you can beat the number of churches and chapels you visited last year, or increase the number of miles walked or ridden.

Our beautiful church will be open to visitors for tea, coffee and cakes between 2-4pm on the day. Even if you're not riding or striding, do pop along for a cuppa and support the event. Toilets will be available during this time. Refreshments will be available in the church porch throughout the day from 10am-6pm.

Half of the money raised by All Saints' entrants, including Gift Aid, will come directly back to our church.

If you would like to know more, please contact Clare Ormston at clarecotten@hotmail.com Clare will be able to provide you with sponsor forms and details of which churches are open on the day so you can plan your own route. Clare has also taken part for the last five years so will be happy to give advice (including which churches have the best cake!).

OPEN CHURCH & RIDE & STRIDE

St Giles Church, Balderton

RIDE+STRIDE
for Churches

Saturday 10th September

On Saturday 10th September Nottinghamshire Historic Churches Trust's Sponsored Ride and Stride will take place. As in previous years all riders and walkers are welcome and materials are available in order that you can plan your itinerary to take in as many participating churches and chapels of Nottinghamshire as you wish. Even if cycling is not for you, walking from church to church is very rewarding. All three churches in our benefice will be taking part.

Half of the money, including Gift Aid, raised by members of St.Giles will come directly back to the church's fabric fund, the rest being put into central funds for repairs to historic churches. Last year our cyclists raised £760.

Please contact me if you would like to take part this year in the Ride and Stride.

St.Giles Church will be open all day with refreshments (including cakes) being served. We would welcome any visitors or members of our congregation to come and enjoy some time together over a cuppa. If you would like to help with stewarding, or serving refreshments, please contact me on 1636673298 or email alisonmusicwilson@yahoo.co.uk. Alison Wilson

JOIN THE SPONSORED WALK TO EIGHT CHURCHES

All Saints' Church Coddington is raising money for its Fabric Fund, to carry out essential repairs and maintenance, by having a sponsored walk to the eight churches detailed overleaf.

PLEASE SPONSOR US OR JOIN US ON THE WALK

The full route is approximately 20 miles, mainly off-road, and can be undertaken in full or in part, any time during August 2022, starting at Coddington All Saints' via the churches at Barnby, Beckingham, Fenton, Stubton, Dry Doddington, Claypole, finishing at St Giles Balderton.

The sketch map overleaf shows the route of public footpaths between the churches and a choice of pubs.

You can get some sponsors and do the walk or plan your own combination of routes to walk in separate stages any time up until Wednesday 31st August. Do remember to take a photo of yourself at each church for evidence and later display in All Saints' Church.

Funds collected can be donated online to All Saints Coddington Parochial Church Council Sort code: 30-95-88 Ac. No: 00397671 Ref: Sponsored Walk or handed in at All Saints' Church Coddington on Saturday, 3 September 2022 between 2.00 and 4.00 pm.

For further information, or if you plan to join us in August, contact Barbara on 01636 678788 or barbara@ashby2014.plus.com or Sue on 01636 676707 or susanlovell244@gmail.com

DECORATING THE COMMUNITY HALL

We need volunteers for our redecoration in August.

Starting 8th August we need to do some deep cleaning in the Community Hall followed by some internal painting mainly in the large hall. This should take no longer than a week. Dilys has offered to do sandwiches.

At the same time, we need to refurbish some of the exterior windows of the Community Hall. This involves sanding down, filling, priming, undercoating, gloss painting and finally inserting mastic around the frames. The sills can be reached from the ground but the remainder will involve use of our tower platform and steps. This may take up to 2 weeks.

Also starting 8th August we need to redecorate parts of the interior walls of the church vestries where previous damp has caused the paint to bloom or peel. This should not take more than a few days but will have to be arranged around Thursday services and any funerals and also involve moving some furniture etc.

Please put your name down on the sheet at the back of church showing the sessions where you can help or speak one of the wardens.
